Tun capture of Southy by the French forces is an important success at the present ndvantage it gives to Admiral Courser, but also on account of the check it will on the growing arrogance of the Chinese officials. Whatever difference of opinion there may be among foreigners in China with regard to the rights of France in Tonquia, it is almost universally admitted French in Tonquin by the Chinese troops levesty generally in China, as few of the Chinese mandarins in reality make any was not a walk over, and it will prevent the French from falling into the mistake of despising their enemy, and future operations are tuercfore more likely to be conducted suppression of the Black Flags, who should listen to some terms of settlement different from those proposed by the Marquis Tsens.

be swift and decisive, so that the relations between France and China may the sooner be definitely settled. Political uncertainty is proverbially the creator of commercial depression, and the sooner the worst or best is known the better for residents in China.

WE have on various occasions seen fit, or public grounds, to deprecate the present very large employment of Chinese in the Police. We have done this on several differcut and equally tenable grounds. The lokang is, as a rule, timid and loath to intervene in any serious row, he is peculiarly susceptible to temptation in the shape of bribery, and the service is not popular among the more respectable classes of Chinese labourers, and recruits are therefore necessarily drawn from the lower ranks of the coolie class, with the result that they are neither feared nor respected by the Chinese population. Having said so much, and still maintaining it, we think it only right to draw special attention to the praiseworthy conduct of some members of the Chinese contingent within the last few days. In both cases the lokangs appear to have acted the part of guardian angel to the British Jack Tar, and done him good service. In the first case it seems the lokang noticed a suspicious character Road, and saw him spatch something from one of them and run away. medal, belonging to a seaman of H.M.S. restoring to the owner, at the same time selatter instance a lokang observeda Chinaman whom he knew to be a bad character attach himself to a sailor belonging to the troopship Orontes as a guide, and, suspecting some resculity, he followed the pair until they reached a very shady locality, when he saw the Chinese loafer slip his hand into the seaman's pocket. Thereupon be pounced Fooenow Lodge, and T. E. Cooker (Amoy.) upon the would be thief, and, after a desperate resistance, secured him. This seasoned ruffian met with his deserts at the Police Court on Thursday. We notice that the late American schooner Louise has changed her flay into German and is whom she has been bought.

Henry Matticon, able seamen of the British steamer Venice, was tried on the 19th inst. by Mr. Consul Forrest on a charge of assaulting Edmund Barass, third officer of the same steamer. with a knife, with intent to do grievous bodily harm. It appeared from the evidence that the prisoner had challenged the prosecutor to a fight, in which the former got the worst of it. Half an hour afterwards the prisoner came up on the bridge where prosecutor was standing, and, while the latter's attention was engaged elsewhere struck him with a knife in the left groin

The weapon was shattered on a metal matchknow what he was doing .- Mr. Forcest commented very severely on the serious nature of Leong Ahai, hawker, was charged with having the offence, pointing out to him that but for the matchbox he would now be provably on trial for twelve weeks' imprisonment with hard labour .-

SHANGHAI.

It would seem that the entire estate of the great banker Ho is to pass into the bands of Obigogo officials: It is reported that the Vicercy of Chahkinng has sout no fewer than twentydifferent establishments that Hu was working at Ningpo, Shooshing, Hangchow, Huchow, and Chiawah. One of the establishments, a pawashop at Huchow, is said to be worth Tls. 400,000. What it will realise for the benefit of the oreditors. after being well handled by verscious officials, is another thing. It is only now and then that such a chance occurs, and the best must be made of the opportunity. Not many years agon foreign lady in Shanghai was a novelty. The change that has taken place is remarkable; the community has rapidly lost many of its old bachelor associations, and has now assumed the less excitable but more satisfactory condition of English life. A forgi-00 ble illustration of this was given on the 19th added; for all China Ponies that have never just, at the residence of the Rev. A. J. Bamford, when seven infants were baptised, and the ceremony to their fond parents and friends was most interesting. A similar occurrence, we believe, has never before taken place in Shanghai, and it is especially noteworthy as showing the great change that has taken place during THE COMPRADORES! CEP. (presented); value the last few years as regards the residents of baptised this morning are, however, only a few of those that have been born in our midst during the last couple of years or so, and the important question comes forolbly to the mind, where are they all going to be educated? It is certainly ion of their children.—Courier.

Owing to the number of robberies at the Lower Dock at Pootung, Messre. S. C. Farnhem & Co. recently engaged two Sikhs as watchmen; and in consequence, there has been less pilfering there lately, from the fact that the Sikhs were more expert in arresting thieves. This appears to have annoyed the thioring fraternity, and their auger culminated in an outrage on one of the Sikhs on Sunday, the 16th inst. This man was on daty on Sunday morning, and at about five o'clook saught a thief in the act of stealing some scraps of iron, at the same time recognizing him as one of the goolies who were occasionally emplayed at the Dock. The Sikh then looked the Chinaman up in one of the godowns, and as is usual when a thief is caught, a cope was tied to his tail and thrown over a beam to keep the oulprit from running away, his hands at the same time being fastence behind him. It was intended to keep the thief there till the tide turned, when he was to have been sent up to Shanghai. The door of the godown was then looked, and the Sikh later on handed the key to a Chinese shroff, and went to sleep. At 10 o'clock the thief was visited by the Chinese shroff and he was then all right At noon, when the tide had turned, arrangements of the deceased were soon informed of the death liotone of their confrores, and, collecting in a growd, they proceeded to the dook premises and hunted for the Sikh. They soon found him, and as he could not successfully resist so beat him with sticks and bamboos, and tied his the Comprederes or of Hongkong Cup 7 lbs. | hands together. In this condition they took extra; if of both 10 lbs: extra; entrance $10; bim to the house of the nearest tipao, who lived about a mile distant and further down the river. They also took the Chinese shroff with them. The tipso did not know what to do in the matter. but advised the mob to take their prisoners to the city. This was about five o'clock in th having seen what was going on, bustened to in the afternoon there had been a rumour in the settlements that there was something wrong at 2 Pootune, but it was thought the only parties concerned were all Chinese. As soon as it became known that a Sikh was in danger, the THE BANKERS PLATE, (presented); value $100 police acted very energetically. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been jests in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in ecience generally policial the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are The ROYAL CHAMPAGNE, used by Her here given in extense. Each and every word is fully Illustrated and explained, forming exercises These among other items are always to be had for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Pasti pronunciations are given the accents being corefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typographydisplays the success of an attempt to make the Liams, Charge on & Co., Hongkong: Chinese and English type correspond in the sixe two maintain quality, and our prices are of body, thereby effecting a rest economy of sonsistent therewith and at the same time space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and disponsing with those vast margins and vacant spaces-which have herotofore characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work, the following facts are submitted for consideration : Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese charactord. Again, despite all the grammers and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-extions and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub-

.For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chineso. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in Chins, and to the matives thomselves it explains aubjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted; To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages. A Large REDUCTION in PRICE is made to Purchasers of SIX or more Copies. LONDON: TROUBLE & Co., 60, PATERNOSTER ROW. HONGKONG
